

Full Moon Eclipse in the Natal Houses

The first house is Aries ruled by Mars and is your immediate surroundings, your physical body, especially the head and face, your health, accidents, arrivals, the present or today. New ventures and beginnings, your early environment, your personality, how you present yourself to others.

The effect of a Full Moon Eclipse in the First House will bring personal confrontation with others especially in marriage or business partnerships. Not a good time for negotiations business or personal. Avoid confrontations and try to learn to compromise or cooperate.

The second house is Taurus ruled by Venus. The second house is your money and possessions, your inner resources and at times your freedom to do what you want. Your values or what you value in life and how you use your inner resources to get what you value. Personal income, belongings, gifts, bonus, profits and loss, purchases and financial dealings with banks, loan companies.

The Full Moon in the Second House may bring a challenge to change your values. Bills you have forgotten to pay come due. Conflict could arise concerning your money and the resources of others. You may be caught in an embarrassing financial situation during this Eclipse period.

The third house is Gemini ruled by Mercury. The third house rules siblings and extended family, communication, short trips, signing contracts or papers. Correspondence such as letters, messages, conversation, news and gossip. Also education and learning, instruction, private studies. Transportation and cars. Show how and what you study, communicate or write, teach or talk about.

The effect of a Full Moon Eclipse in the Third House may bring an important communication, letter or news from afar or from extended family members. All matters pertaining to legal affairs require careful handling. This is not the ideal time for taking either short or long trips. Could bring the possibility of accidents or confusion while traveling. Be extremely careful what you say or write on paper or sign. Repercussions could develop later.

The fourth house is Cancer ruled by the Moon. The 4th house is your home and base of operations, your family and parents, the root of your soul. This house also covers real estate and the end of matters.

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Fourth House could bring forced changes in the home environment due to loss of work or responsibility to parents. Conflict occurs between duties at home and those at work, involving ambitions and domestic responsibilities.

The fifth house is Leo ruled by the Sun. The 5th house is creativity, children, love affairs and giving your love. Recreation and amusement and all forms of fun and enjoyment of life and the places where you have fun such as parks, theaters, playgrounds, recreation rooms, beaches, ski resorts, ect...

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Fifth House children may require your help or assistance. Changes in recreational or creative activities or romantic adventures due to responsibilities either with children or education.

The sixth house is Virgo ruled by Mercury. The 6th house is your working atmosphere, and your job or service and your daily routine. Food, diet, health, sickness, and medical matters. Small animals and pets. Employees.

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Sixth House can bring loss of job or more responsibilities that bring great stress and illness. Cut down on strenuous activities and get a good physical check-up. Tone down any behind the scenes or clandestine affairs with co-workers or supervisors. Be on the alert for secret enemies at your place of employment or hidden and confusing elements.

The seventh house is Libra ruled by Venus. The 7th house is your partnerships and marriage. The emphasis is on committed intimate or marital and business partners, teammates, competitors, allies, large-scale negotiations, being ready to make concessions and improving understanding with others.

The Full Moon in the Seventh House Brings sure crisis and the need for co-operation and comprise in relationships and marriage. Be prepared for opposing views with your partner. The accent is on teamwork, and compromising differences concerning your views or ideas with competitors or partners.

The eighth house is Scorpio ruled by Pluto/Mars. The 8th house is healing, transformational emotional events, death and dying, sexuality. Insurance, tax matters, other peoples money and investments, surgery or the removal of something. Also marital or partnership funds and joint financial dealings with other people, alimony. Jointly held money and property, resources and savings. Private transactions, secret and hidden talents. Legacies and inheritances. Debts and collections. Mortgages.

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Eighth House causes crisis when you have to draw on your cash savings to take care of unexpected bills, insurance or taxes. Your income tax may be audited. Some give and take will probably be necessary and sharing expenditures may be one way of resolving difficulties. Take steps to protect personal and joint funds and possessions against loss or damage.

The ninth house is Sagittarius ruled by Jupiter. The 9th house rules long distance travel, courts and law, foreigners, higher mind, and abstract concepts, religion and philosophy. Also your public opinion, publishing. Communications or transactions with people from a distance. Religious and intellectual interests and affairs of the partner's relatives, your in-laws.

The Full Moon in the Ninth House could bring crisis or confrontation with a decision concerning news or documents received from afar. Travel plans may have to undergo revising and changes or cancellation. Be careful what your say, do or write on paper so as to avoid legal complications. Seek the advice of legal experts if difficulties arise.

The tenth house is Capricorn ruled by Saturn. The 10th house is career and goals you set for your life. It is your reputation, your ego, and your social status. Also government officials or agencies, bosses, important people or a parents. Job interests, responsibilities, your business, occupation and career, attaining your goals and aims in life and this house also rules improvement of your credit rating. Possible honors and popularity or coming to the public's attention also is influenced in this house.

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Tenth House bring undesirable or forced changes in your career that can have a devastating effect on your home life or move you from where you live. Possible reduction of income that results in losses of property or home. Responsibilities in the home and/or with parents conflict with career.

The eleventh house is Aquarius ruled by Uranus/Saturn. The 11th house is friends and associates, groups that you belong to and their activities, boosting community projects. Joining clubs and organizations. Pursuit of your hopes and wishes for the future. Also this is the house of things that happen beyond your control. With this house accented there could be an emphasis on social ties, group activities and friendships. Business income and assets. Seeking people who can help you.

The Full Moon in the Eleventh House brings conflict with friends or social acquaintances that expect favors of you or that are more demanding than you had anticipated. Watch unsound speculative ventures during this eclipse period. Responsibilities to children or family member could hinder your social life or get-togethers with friends.

The Twelfth house is Pisces ruled by Neptune/Jupiter. The 12th house rules large animals, sorrow, imprisonment, affliction, seclusion, detention, subversion, the past and yesterday. Your own self-undoing and limitations, secrecy, sorrows and intuitive connection to subconscious mind. Emphasis here can bring you in to contact with institutions such as schools and hospitals or jails. There may be an accent on confidential and investigative matters and possible police activity. You may have contacts with hospitals, institutions and invalids. Solitude, personal limitations and problems will confront you. Stick to regular routine work and try to find the cause for past mistakes now.

The Twelfth House is the house of retreat, where we go to recharge and renew ourselves. It tells us about our subconscious, our inner spiritual life and our mental health. It is also the house of karma and influences from the past. Any planet located in the twelfth house of your chart is strongly charged with memories from the past and its action is influenced by unconscious and subconscious thoughts and feelings.

The Full Moon Eclipse in the Twelfth House may bring to light and perhaps to an emotional climax to secrets or hidden matters pertaining to health, work or long neglected problems. Enforced changes by circumstances outside your control bring setbacks and difficulties with work and daily routine. You may have to take care of someone who is sick, physically or mentally. Stick to regular routines and give more attention to unfinished tasks. This could be the best time for spiritual or inner work deep in the subconscious.

If you want to know where this Full Moon Eclipse falls in your natal chart or you have questions or comments email astrologywithjune@icloud.com. If you have not had a reading with me then you will also need to send me your birth data.

Peace, Joy.

June Collier
PO Box 112
Elk Creek, VA 24326